INDIANS SWELTER IN BATTLE WITH LEBANON VALLEY

Warm Weather Makes Players Uncomfortable in Game at Carlisle—Coach Glenn Warner Expects Plenty of Opposition.

CARLISLE, Pa., Sept. 23.—The Carlisle Indians met Lebanon Valley College at football here this afternoon, the warmest day on which the college game has ever been played in this locality. The players fairly sweltered in the lightest togs they could get.

Before the game Coach Guyer, of Lebanon Valley, said that he thought he had the best team Lebanon has ever brought to Carlisle, their average weight running over 150 pounds. He fully expected to hold the Indians to a very low score. That was the only new figure in the Indian line-up at the game's opening.

COLLEGIATE FOOTBALL PREPARED WHEN BIG SERIES STARTS

Athletics' Star, Who Will Cover Annual Baseball Classic for Evening Ledger, Well Equipped and Qualified.

Eddie Collins will have to rush home and begin oiling his typewriter if he expects to have the machine in working order for the world's series, because Ben Johnson has decided that the diamond classic will begin at the earliest possible date, which is October 5, one day after the close of the major leagues.

Many ball players can go through a game and at the finish they will be unable to tell just how it happened. More than once the turning point of a game has been successfully encountered by a player and yet when the heat of battle had subsided that same player was unable to state wherein the turning point lay. This is not true of Eddie Collins.

Championship for Lawrence, Mass. LAWRENCE, Mass., Sept. 23.—In a closely contested game Lawrence wrestled the New England championship from New London yesterday by a score of 4 to 2.

Tommy Murphy Gets a Draw NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Harlem Tommy Murphy and Sammy Holtzman, known to boxing fans as Frankie Callahan, boxed a sensational ten-round bout at the Broadway S. C., Brooklyn, last night, with honors even.

Special Suit for Mammoth Player MILWAUKEE, Sept. 23.—A candidate for the University of Wisconsin football team is so large he requires a specially made suit of gridiron molekins for his use.

PERSONAL TOUCHES IN SPORT If you're a wolverine spook an' wanna call this gent Doublek we won't make any kick. If you wanna change your luck an' try pronouncin' it Doublek we won't say that you're sick.

Career of a Football Player By WALTER CAMP. Hot days when the sun on the brown award is burning.

Wet days when the mud on your cleats is dismaying. When slanting driving and catching's mere praying.

Ab, then, my young man, we'll see your upbringin'. Last fall Captain Ketcham, of the Yale football team, made himself ridiculous by stating that he would not consent to the players of old Eli being numbered for the benefit of the spectators.

EXPERIENCES BUT SLIGHT DIFFICULTY IN DISPOSING OF MRS. J. S. ELY IN PLAY FOR BERTHELIN CUPS AT NOBLE.

NOBLE, Pa., Sept. 23.—There were no really thrilling matches in the first round for the Berthelin cup here today, and on the whole they were somewhat unexciting.

Mrs. Ely and Miss Helen Alexander were paired in the first round. Mrs. Ely won 3 up and 7 to 0 to play. Mrs. Ely would probably have done better, but for the fact that she was decidedly nervous. Her nervousness was evidence on the greens more than anywhere else, and she missed several comparatively easy putts.

All the out-of-town players who qualified for the first sixteen were defeated. Mrs. Ely was paired against Mrs. Ely and Miss Helen Alexander. Mrs. Ely won 3 up and 7 to 0 to play. Mrs. Ely would probably have done better, but for the fact that she was decidedly nervous.

First Sixteen, First Round. Mrs. Ely, 3 up and 7 to 0; Miss Helen Alexander, 3 up and 7 to 0; Mrs. Ely, 3 up and 7 to 0; Miss Helen Alexander, 3 up and 7 to 0.

The Golfers' Aftermath In looking back a short way over the summer months, the Philadelphia Golf Association of the Amateur Athletic Union will no doubt earn him many more friends.

HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 23.—Two Philadelphia Cricket Club girls—Miss Helen Alexander and Miss Dorothy Dougherty, are paired in the second round of play in doubles in the women's annual Philadelphia and district tennis championship tournament in progress at the Merion Cricket Club today.

Mrs. J. S. Taylor, one of the best players in the South Jersey, and her partner, Miss Marion Crosswell, Philadelphia Cricket Club, who is in line for the singles' championship, both advanced in the doubles competition today. This team defeated Mrs. F. B. Gilbert, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Oelshelmer in two sets, 6-2, 6-2.

English Soccer Results. LONDON, Sept. 23.—Two important Scottish League games were decided yesterday.

GRIDIRON NEWS GLEANED FROM LEADING COLLEGE CAMPS. The Elias' backfield, none too strong at best.

Not until some time Friday, possibly not before Friday evening, will any one be heard to estimate the final record of the team for the game with Gettysburg.

Morning practice at Pennsylvania yesterday consisted of a long blackboard talk, principally on defense, followed by a demonstration on the field of the things taught.

WEST POINT, Sept. 23.—The continued gridiron weather has led the cadets to their work and there was nothing doing on the Army's playing field.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Three hundred and thirty-four football players responded to the call of practice yesterday.

COLLEGE HILL AND DALE RACE MAY COME HERE

As Every Other Institution Has Fostered the Event, Pennsylvania Will Likely Bid for It Next Year.

The chances are that if the University of Pennsylvania track authorities take the proper initiative, the Intercollegiate A. A. A. cross country championship for 1915 will be held in Fairmount Park.

The candidates for the Quaker cross-country team will be called out on Tuesday next week, when Coach George W. Orton will give them an easy run through the Park.

APAWAMIS TOURNAMENT BIG GOLF TEST AT RYE, N. Y.

Winthrop Sargent, Merion Cricket Club, This City, Turns in Card of 90—J. D. Foote Nets 83.

APAWAMIS CLUB, Rye, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Judges, lawyers, physicians and men of affairs in the financial world are entered on the links of the club for the tenth annual seniors' tournament, which began here today.

There are some 200 entries, all owning to 15 years or more. First away was Winthrop Sargent, one of the leading lights of the Merion Cricket Club, Philadelphia.

The best card of the early hours was returned by James D. Foot, chairman of the tournament committee. Despite the fact that Foot never swung a driver or iron until he had passed the 50-year mark, his list of golf trophies is long.
